This is offered only if enough students request that course. The course is fee-based.
Study Programs	An overview of the programs offered is available on our website: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bachelor Programs • Master Programs Capacities are allocated according to space and based on your Transcript of Records. Please check the programs on our website for the courses. We can provide you with a preliminary list in June and December. An updated list of available courses will be provided shortly before each semester begins. Internship modules, thesis modules and some selected courses usually are not open to exchange students.
Learning Agreement	The International Office gets final course form in June and December, and we will send them to the students by link. However, you can find the courses on our website at each program's description at the bottom of the page. You should send us your Learning Agreement 2 months before classes start. We will check, if the chosen courses are available in the following semester, and if so, you will be registered to the courses on a first come, first served basis. If we can see problems with your course's choice before your arrival, we will get back to you. However, changes may be necessary during Orientation Week or when courses start.

Schedule	Once that you are registered for the courses, you can see them on our CampusNet system. The log on data will be sent to you two weeks before the semester starts (April 1 st and October 1 st) by Student Services. There you can check for any time clashes, so that you can see if
Duration	One or two semesters, depending on agreement with the partner university.
Credits	We use the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS). ECTS credits are awarded for successfully completed studies. 1 ECTS is equivalent to 25-30 hours of study. Students must take a minimum of one course and a maximum of 30 ECTS per semester.
Grading System	The grading system ranges from 1,0 to 5,0 with 1,0 being the best grade and 4,0 being the pass grade; 5,0 means failed. Some courses may be graded with pass or fail only.
Language classes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Berlin: Curricular and non-curricular language classes in German, English and Spanish are offered at campus Ernst-Reuter-Platz. Usually, language classes are Monday morning and Wednesday afternoon. Please note that not every level will be offered in every semester. Language classes may overlap with regular classes if you study either at BSDC or SOPA. ○ Dresden: Please indicate the language courses that you would like to participate in, the International Office in Dresden will advise you on that. ○ Hamburg: Currently, our Hamburg students participate digitally at the courses from Berlin. For further information please contact: languages.hsbe@srh.de
Accommodation	Unfortunately, we cannot offer our own student accommodation. However, incoming exchange students receive an updated Welcome Guide from Student Services and can find on our website detailed information on how to find a place to stay in Berlin.

Cost of Living	Students should plan to spend a minimum of 800€ per month in Berlin and Hamburg, and 600€ in Dresden on accommodation, transportation, leisure activities and other living costs. Cost may vary tremendously depending on everyone’s lifestyle.
Public Transport and Semester ticket	All students at Berlin and Saxon universities must purchase a “semester ticket” for public transportation at the beginning of each semester. This discounted student ticket costs 193,80€ in Berlin or 142,20€ in Dresden and allows the use of the whole public transportation system in either Berlin (including Potsdam) or Dresden, respectively. Should you stay less than three months, you could be exempt from the ticket, please contact us about that.
Visa Requirements and Residence Permit	EU-citizens neither need a visa nor a residence permit for Germany., but must register as inhabitants of either Berlin, Dresden, or Ham- burg, or the city where they live, respectively. Non-EU citizens should always check with the German Embassy in their country of residence if they need a visa for entering Germany. If you already study in the EU, a visa might not be necessary, but please make sure by checking with the German embassy in your country of living. If you must apply for a visa, you might have to wait several months for an appointment and the visa process. Unfortunately, we have no influence on either the process or the decisions. Depending on your visa, you must apply for a residence permit for studying in the city where you reside. In Hamburg and Dresden that is relatively uncomplicated, please refer to the Student Welcome Guide or our website. Student registered in Berlin can do this via the SRH Residence Permit Service at the campus Ernst-Reuter-Platz. Please contact: residencepermitservice.hsbe@srh.de

Health Insurance	Every student is required by law to have sufficient health insurance for the entire program duration. Please hand in a copy/scan of your health insurance; otherwise, this can be done during Orientation Week. You must register you with a German health insurance provider for confirmation. If you have sufficient private insurance, a German health insurance provider will give you a waiver. Detailed information is provided in the Welcome Guide. Students who cannot provide us with information on their health insurance cannot be enrolled at SRH.
