Photography | M.A.

Our Unique Curriculum for You

This programme offers you the exciting opportunity to deepen your knowledge of photography. Find out more about intersections of photographic and creative practices, theoretical concepts, and philosophical questions. Examine the connection between theory and practice in cultural, social, and historical contexts. Question existing thought patterns and learn to view your work and the work of your peers with a critical eye. Develop your unique approach and individual visual language. Learn to assess the professional world of image-makers and the medium's history. Finally, this highly flexible programme allows you to refine your photographic orientation and artistic practice.
